- b) other expenses approved by the Congress and expenses that the Executive Committee is entitled to incur within the scope of its authority;
- c) all other expenses in keeping with the objectives pursued by DIFA.

02

Article 71 Independent auditors

The independent auditors appointed by the Congress shall audit the accounts approved by the Finance Committee in accordance with the appropriate principles of accounting and present a report to the Congress. The auditors shall be appointed for a period of 2 years. This mandate may be renewed.

Article 72 Membership subscriptions

1. Membership subscriptions are due on 1 January. The annual subscription for new Members for the year in question shall be paid within 30 days of the close of the Congress at which they are admitted.
2. The Congress shall fix the amount of the annual subscription every 2 years on the recommendation of the Executive Committee. It shall be the same for every Member.
3. DIFA shall not levy annual subscription for the first 4 years since its creation, ending at the end of the calendar year which marks the 4th year since its creation.

Article 73 Settlement

DIFA may debit any Member's assets to settle claims.

Article 74 Levies

DIFA may demand that a levy be paid by its Members for matches.

VI. COMPETITIONS AND RIGHTS IN COMPETITIONS AND EVENTS

Article 75 Competitions

1. DIFA organises and coordinates the following official competitions held within its territory: championship, cup, league.
2. The Executive Committee may delegate to DIFA's subordinate Leagues the authority to organise competitions. The competitions organized by the Leagues shall not interfere with those competitions organized by DIFA. Competitions organized by DIFA shall take priority.
3. The Executive Committee may issue special regulations to this end.

Article 76 Club licensing

The Executive Committee of DIFA will set up regulations regarding a club licensing system governing the participation of Clubs in competitions of DIFA.

Article 77 Rights

1. DIFA and its Members are the original owners of all of the rights emanating from competitions and other events coming under their respective jurisdiction, without any restrictions as to content, time, place and law. These rights include, among others, every kind of financial rights, audiovisual and radio recording, reproduction and broadcasting rights, multimedia rights, marketing and promotional rights and incorporeal rights such as emblems and rights arising under copyright law.
2. The Executive Committee shall decide how and to what extent these rights are utilised and draw up special regulations to this end.

Handwritten initials or a signature, possibly 'D.F.' or similar, located at the bottom right of the page.

3. The Executive Committee shall alone decide whether these rights shall be utilised exclusively, or jointly with a third party or entirely through a third party.

Article 78 Authorisation

DIFA and its Members are exclusively responsible for authorising the distribution of image and sound and other data carriers of football matches and events coming under their respective jurisdiction, without any restrictions as to content, time, place and technical and legal aspects.

Article 79 International matches and competitions

The authority for organising international matches and competitions between Association teams and between Leagues and/or Club teams lies solely with DIFA. No match or competition shall take place without the prior permission of the DIFA Executive Committee. In addition, permission from the relevant Confederation may be required in accordance with the DIFA regulations.

Article 80 Contacts

DIFA shall not play matches or make sporting contacts with Associations that are not members of FIFA or Deaflympics or with provisional members of a Confederation without the approval of respectively FIFA or Deaflympics.

Article 81 Approval

Clubs, Leagues or any other group of Clubs that are affiliated to DIFA cannot belong to another Association or participate in competitions on the territory of another Association without the authorisation of DIFA and the other Association and of FIFA, except in exceptional circumstances.

VII. INTERNATIONAL MATCHES AND COMPETITIONS

This section governs provisions such as unforeseen contingencies, force majeure, the dissolution of DIFA and the enforcement of the Statutes of DIFA.

Article 82 Unforeseen contingencies and force majeure

The Executive Committee shall have the final decision on any matters not provided for in the Statutes or in cases of force majeure.

Article 83 Dissolution

1. Any decision relating to the dissolution of DIFA requires a majority of two-thirds of all of the Members of DIFA, which must be obtained at a Congress specially convened for the purpose.
2. If DIFA is disbanded, its assets shall be transferred to such recipient as the final Congress may designate]. The recipient shall hold these assets in trust as "bonus pater familiae" until DIFA is re-established.

Article 84 Enforcement

These Statutes were adopted at the Congress in Geneva on 11 November 2009 and will come into force immediately.
